The crown prince beat the crown princess, according to an editorial statement in the Vossische Zeitung, one of the most careful newspapers published in Berlin, which adds:

"Their disagreements reached this crises in June, after Professor Giron became the children's tutor. The princess at that time considered seeking a divorce and visited her best friend, the Princess Theresa of Bavaria, who dissauded her. The princess, however, after returning to Dresden did not resum marital relations."

The sympathy of the people of Dresden seems wholly with the princess, who is of a cheerful, pleasure-seeking disposition. The crown princess, who is of a cheerful, pleasure-seeking disposition. The crown princess of Bavaria, the crown princess complains bitterly of her treatment at the Saxony court, where she always was subjected to the strictest discipline. She says the official statements in her case are incorrect.

THE CABINET OF PRESIDENT DIAZ

Disastrous Freight Wreck on the Pennsylvania Limited, Running Stuck by His Engine in the Face Colorado & Southern Road Near Trinidad.

Mexico City, Dec. 24.—The resignation of General Barnandero Reyes, who since Jan. 1. 1900, has held the post of minister of war, has caused a decided sensation in political circles. He has made an excellent record in this office and has been praised on all sides, and in his retirement from the cabinet he carries with him the general good will of his ministerial associates. It is rumored that General Reyes will again become governor of the important state of Nuevo Leon, whose capital is the city of Monterey. It is probable that General Francisco Mena, present minister of communications and public works, will succeed to the vacancy in the war department, involving some other cabinet changes.

The immediate cause of General Reyes' resignation is said to have been articles appearing in La Protesta, ublican from Trinidad, Colo. says. Seven men were killed in a freight wreck which occurred one and a half miles north of here on the Colorado & Southern railway about 6:45 o'clock this evening. The dead are:

Engineer Elmer F. Pearce. J. Fox, fireman on extra freight. McDermott, brakeman on extra. J. W. Goldtrap, engineer on regular

The immediate cause of General Reyes' resignation is said to have been articles appearing in La Protesta, a newspaper which attacked Finance Minister Limantour, and which articles were attributed to a near relative of General Reyes, though this is denied today by the person concerned. At all events, General Reyes felt it incumbent on him to tender his resignation,

The attack on Minister Limantour was such as to bring the authors of the articles within the purview of the law. General Reyes himself has maintained a consistent attitude, in sus-

CRIMINAL LIBEL IS

Colorado Springs, Colo., Dec. 24.—City Auditor I. C. Harris was arrested late tonight by a deputy sheriff on a justice court warrant charging him with criminal libel. City Treasurer John A. Voorhees is the complaining witness. The arrest is the outgrowth of the charges made against the office of the city treasurer by the auditor a few days ago and published. The charges were sworn to before a notary by the auditor. Mr. Harris gave bond tonight in the sum of $700 for his appearance on Dec. 39.

J. W. Goidtrap, engineer on regular reight.

— King, machinist on regular.

— Devereux, fireman on regular.

L. F. Richards, brakeman on regular.

The injured man is Fred Gilbert, riding on extra, hadly bruised.

The cause of the accident, according to a statement made by Engineer Peace of the extra train. Was that the regular train had been overlooked, the extra running without orders, expecting to meet passenger No. 2 at Bowen, ten miles north of here. At 6:37 an extra northbound freight, in charge of Conductor Bronson, carrying fourteen cars loaded with merchandise and machinery, pulled out of the yards here.

Less than ten minutes later, just as they were rounding a sharp curve not more than a mile from the Colorado & Southern yards, they saw regular freight train No. 28 bearing down upon them, not more than 100 yards distant. No. 28 was a heavy train of forty cars, loaded with coal, and was running at a fair rate of speed. Before any of the seven trainmen could jump for safety the two trains crashed together. Fourteen cars of the regular train were completely wrecked and seven of the extra demolished. Both of the engines are completed wrecks. The bodies of the dead are still under the wreckage. FAMOUS CASE DECIDED PRICE EIGHT MILLION Montana Supreme Court Disal- Nearly All the Coal Mines in Kentucky Under Control of Pennsylvania mining case was decided by the supreme court today. The case was an action for damages in which the Montana Ore Purchasing company sued the Boston & Montana company for a large sum for damages for alleged trespass. The Boston & Montana appealed and the court sustains Judge Clancy in part. a "Nigger."

Walla Waila, Wash. Dec. 24.—bd Palmer, a bootblack, was stabbed four times tonight by "Scotty" Anderson, a negro, and may die. The cutting took place in Schwartz's saloon, a place frequented by colored troopers, and is said to have been caused by Paimer reterring to the colored man as a "nigger." Anderson is in the city jail. Anderson made his escape before the police arrived, but he was captured half an hour later as he was emerging from a negro gambling house. A floddy pocket-knife with a long blade was found in the prisoner's possession. Anderson is thought by the police to be negro "Dorse," the colored Freewater puglist, who escaped from the officers at that place last week.

HI JOLLY DEAD.

Incident Brings to Mind an Interest-

Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 24.—Word was received today that Hi Jolly died last Thursday, after a short illness, at Tyson Wells. on the desert 100 miles west of Wicenburg. Hi Jolly was a Greek and an historical character, in that when the government brought a caravan of camels here at about the time of the civil war to experiment with them in crossing desert wastes, Jolly secured the animals in Asla and had charge of them here.

The experiment was a failure and the camels were liberated, roaming for years in the Arizona mountains, where some of them are supposed to still exist.

The entire house looked as if a tornado had plowed through its center. The front glass windows were broken and both sides of the structure were shattered by the concussion.

The news of the disaster spread rapidly and soon Central avenue was jammed with people. Reports were current that several persons had been killed. The police and firemen took charge of the building and the work of rescue began. Men were pulled from under the debris in a terribly shattered state. One of the most pitiable sights was when "Billy" Helwig, the blind manager of the Lamar bath house, was taken from the ruins. Helwig was known to the thousands of visitors who come to Hot Springs annually.

The court said such a verdict would be legal and later in the day the verdict as stated was returned.

Miss Biggar laid claims to the entire estate of Bennett, who died recently, leaving a large fortune, as his wife and as the heir of a child of Bennett which she said was born to her after his death and soon died. Dr. Hendricks was her physician and the proprietor of a sanitarium where she said the child was born. Stanton said he had united Miss Biggar and Bennett in marriage and a marriage certificate signed by him played an important part in the case. The claim of Miss Biggar was contested by persons who claimed to be the rightful heirs of Bennett, and they made the charge of conspiracy. Under the will, Miss Biggar was bequeathed a large part of the estate.
